Note—Contn. sheet

To

The Secretary to Government,

Muzrai Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

I, the son-in-law of the late Mr.T. Ramaswamy Pillay, who held the post of Head Clerk in the cash section of the General and Revenue Secretariat, have erected a Mutt, in memory of my deceased father-in-law which is known as "Ramaswamy Pillay's Mutt, and is situated in Banaswady Road, Lingarajapuram Kayamgutta village, Bangalore taluk. For the up-keep of the Mutt and the annual performance of Gurupooja, the feeding of poor etc., an investment of about Rs.10,000/- is required, and to enable me and my heirs to perform these religious rites and maintain the Mutt, without interruption, I have set apart Rs.10,000/-, which I have invested in the Mysore State 6½ % Loan, the interest derived therefrom being sufficient to meet the above charges. I wish to make over the 6½ per cent. bond to the Mysore Government, as a permanent endowment and I request that it may be kindly accepted and the interest falling due till the 6½ per cent.Loan is discharged paid to me and to my heirs, as detailed below. After the discharge of the 6½ % Loan, I request that the endowment may be treated as a charitable Endowment, and the interest allowed under the rules in force at the time for payment of interest on such Endowments, and the same paid to me, or the said heirs as the case may be.

(1) During my life-time the interest on the Endowment to be paid to me.

(2) After my death, interest to be paid to my first son-in-law, T. Jivarathnam Pillay, if he should be living at the time.

(3) After the death of T. Jeevarathnam Pillay, or in the event of Jeevarathnam Pillay not surviving me, the interest to be paid to my second son-in-law,T. Natesan Pillay.

(4) After the death of T. Natesan Pillay, or in the event of the said Jeevarathnam Pillay and Natesan Pillay not surviving me, interest to be paid to Cuppusamy Pillay, grand-son of my brother T. Swaminatha Pillay. Cuppusamy Pillay is now a minor aged twelve years, and in the event of his not attaining the age of majority at the time payment becomes due to him, interest to be paid to his duly constituted guardian till he attains majority.

After the death of Cuppusamy Pillay, interest to be paid to his heirs, or in the event of there being no heirs, tó the heirs of Jeevarathnam Pillay or Natesan Pillay, in the order mentioned.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

T. Chinnasamy Pillay
